SING

Listening to songs will help your child develop his listening skills. Hearing new words will help your child to have a larger vocabulary.