WRITE
Provide your child with crayons and chalk to help build fine motor skills which are essential to developing their writing skills later.