Encourage children to participate in dramatic play. As they pretend, encourage dialogue to create a story. This will help with their narrative skills.