Children learn through play. They learn about language through playing as activities help them put thoughts into words which allow them to communicate.